Customer Persona: Emma-The Student Activist

Emma is a 20 year old from New York, NY majoring in political science and environmental studies. She worries about not having enough resources to make a real impact. One of her hopes and dreams is to see real change in global access to clean water. While working for a non-profit international NGO, Emma participates in clubs like the Climate Action Club and the Student Environmental Action Coalition Club as she is influenced by social justice as a focus of change

Value Proposition: Do you care about turning your passion for justice into real evident change and not just spreading awareness? charity: water makes this possible by turning all donated dollars into clean water initiatives with full transparency so you can see exactly how your contributions are transforming the lives of individuals and communities. It's activism you can trust in real time, with real change, with real people, with real results.

A Basic Need Is still Out of Reach

- Millions of people still do not have access to clean and safe drinking water
- Families & Communities are at risk for diseases
- Many have to walk miles just to collect dirty drinking water which keeps children from attending school

Be Part of the Solution

- Every donation helps bring clean water to families, creating healthier communities and helping children attend in school
- charity: water creates accessible and sustainable safe drinking water to communities
- This creates real change by improving health, education, and life expectancy

Donate Change to Change the Story so You Can Change Lives

The combination of colors communicate a harmony of strength, confidence, and hope.

The deep navy reflects confidence and trust ensuring that the message appears trustworthy and serious while the vibrant yellow gives it sense of urgency, optimism, and action.

The visual of clean water will have long-lasting effects as it is reinforced by the soft blue tone that implies a sense of serenity, clarity, and purpose.

Proxima Nova Condensed

I decided on this photo because it communicates the positive effects of clean water in a way that seems genuine and relatable. Emma, the student activist, is my target audience, and this approach works best for her because she is driven to make a difference and witness real results. The visual enhances her emotionally to connect and reminds that her actions can result in major changes.
